THE ARMENIA FUND ANNUAL REPORT FREE GIVEAWAY

As you might have guessed from our (very imaginative) title (and the photo above), we are giving away free copies of the Armenia Fund Annual Report 2007 book complete with a DVD. This book covers the Fund's most remarkable initiatives that came to life in the past year. While outlining the main achievements and the thorny road still ahead of us, this book is our way of saying a very special thank you to each and every Armenian - scattered around the world but brought together by the (at times evasive, seemingly unreachable but nevertheless noble) dream of a prosperous homeland.

For over sixteen years now, individuals and families from Argentina and Australia, the United States and Canada, the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Brazil, Switzerland, Austria, Sweden, the Netherlands, Lebanon and every country on Earth where there is even the tiniest Armenian community have reached out to their compatriots in Armenia and Artsakh offering help and support where it is needed most. And no matter how hard the journey and distant the goal, Armenians - we have already made a difference: lives have been changed; Armenia and Artsakh are better places today because of this effort of many for one cause.

Apply now to receive your own free copy of the Annual Report 2007 by contacting us at annualreport@humnadram.org and we will do everything possible to get you your book as soon as possible.
